REMARKS.

The overseers of the poor have to report, that the town farm is in good condition. It has been well managed for the interest of the town, both in the house and on the farm. The stock and tools have been well cared for and are looking well. We have built a good woodhouse, 16x20 with 10-foot posts; we have also shingled the carriage house and carpenter's shop.

We have aided during the year 20 families consisting of 76 persons. We have also aided 13 other persons.

We have engaged the services of the present warden and matron for one year from March 1, 1890.

We ask an appropriation for the ensuing year of $3,400.00.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN BROADBENT,
F. VAN ORNUM,
H. E. NEWELL,

Overseers of the Poor.

REPORT OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE TOWN LIBRARY.

The Trustees respectfully report that the number of volumes now on the catalogue is 5,794. This number, however, does not accurately represent the actual size of the library, inasmuch as many volumes are worn out and a few have been lost. It is desirable that the worn out books be replaced during the coming year, as the fact of their condition demonstrates the demand for them.

No addition has been made during the year, because the money available for books has not been sufficient to warrant it.

The financial statement herein shows that a balance of the refunded dog tax is in the hands of the Town Treasurer. As by law this tax is to be used either for schools or for the library, and as by the vote of the town it was appropriated for the library, it would seem that the Treasurer must hold this unexpended balance for library purposes. If this view is correct, then there is now available for the purchase of books the sum of $209.68, and if the town will vote an appropriation of $200 and the refunded dog tax for the year 1889, the trustees will then be able to make a considerable addition of new books, replace the worn out ones and rebind many that may thus be saved.

From the books of the Librarian it appears that three hundred and eighty-eight persons have taken from the library during the year eight thousand nine hundred and eighty-one volumes.

We submit the following

FINANCIAL STATEMENT.

The following sums have been available for library purposes, viz :

The refunded dog tax of 1888,	$440 98
The cash in the hands of the Librarian, March, 1889,	16 27
The amount received from the sale of catalogues and cards, and for fines,	19 78
	<hr/>
Total,	$477 03

There has been expended for the Library the following sums, viz :

For salary of Librarian to March 1, 1890,	$143 30
To printing cards,	4 50
For sundries,	15 36
For record book for Trustees,	2 25
For paper,	20 50
For insurance,	67 50
Total,	$253 41

Leaving a balance of	$223 62
Of this balance the Town Treasurer has	$209 68
And the Librarian,	13 94

We desire to place upon the records of the Town our tribute of respect to the late Abbie B. Freeman.

Mrs. Abbie B. Freeman died September 9, 1889.

She had been connected with the library continuously since 1872.

Peculiarly fitted by her training as a teacher, no less than by her natural aptitude for directing and controlling affairs entrusted to her, she managed the affairs of the library to the entire satisfaction of the trustees.

With a sound judgment and a delicate literary taste and a wide range of information, her services were of the highest value in the formation of the library.

With a wise appreciation of the varying wants of various minds, she judiciously aided in the selection of books for general use, and was ever ready to direct the individual enquirer in the right way.

From small beginnings, and with a just pride, she watched the steady growth of the library, year by year, with a deep personal interest.

She loved good books ; each one had its individual characteristics, by which she knew it, even as one knows a friend.

For her years of faithful service in the trust committed to her, for her zeal in the cause of good literature and for her example of unselfish devotion to the best interests of the community, she merits the grateful remembrance of the people of Millbury.

JOHN HOPKINS,
IRVING B. SAYLES,
D. EDMUND MARCH,

Trustees.
